"Life of the Party", a lively comedy, was presented by the Winfield-Mt. Union Senior Class at 8:00 p.m. on April 18th and 19th in the Winfield gym.

The play is an understanding study of modern youth which opens as the Hughes family moves to Butterfield and begins to choose friends. Mr. Hughes is to set up a branch office for his firm; Mrs. Hughes, a definite snob, has high social ambitions. Oldest daughter Mildred, a college freshman, fancies she's in love with the snotty son of a bank president. Studious daughter Jean, infatuated with smooth-talking Mike Tisdale (who arranges the party and talks Jean into playing hostess), flings off her glasses and becomes the life of the party. Her brother Teddy gets into a mess juggling four dates at once—until the girls get wise. And Amy, the youngest and very rowdy, falls in love for the first time.

But the neighbors object to the noisy party and Mr. Hughes finds himself contending with a punch in the nose and the arrival of the police. Everyone now realizes the serious implications of what had seemed very funny. What makes this play worthwhile and unusual is the wise readjustments of the characters to one another and to life.

SENIORS ENJOY TRIP TO NEW ORLEANS

Thirty-six exuberant seniors and chaperones Mr and Mrs. J. C. Heying and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weber, boarded a bus June 2nd at 7.30 A M. bound for New Orleans. Following a long day of back seat poker, the travelers enjoyed a free evening in West Memphis, Arkansas

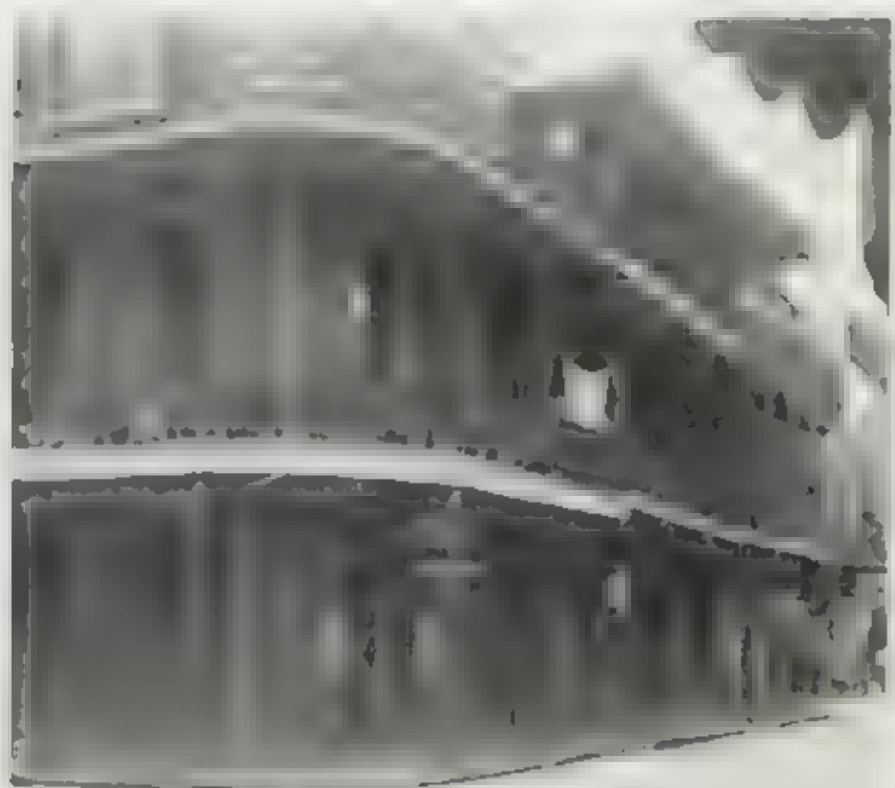

Early the next morning on our way to New Orleans, we crossed the world's longest bridge, the Lake Ponchartrain Crossway, 23.8 miles long. Arriving at our hotel, the Fountainbleue we enjoyed a free evening out on the town

Tuesday we toured a ground-level cemetery, wandered through the French Quarter, and cruised New Orleans Harbor on the S S. PRESIDENT

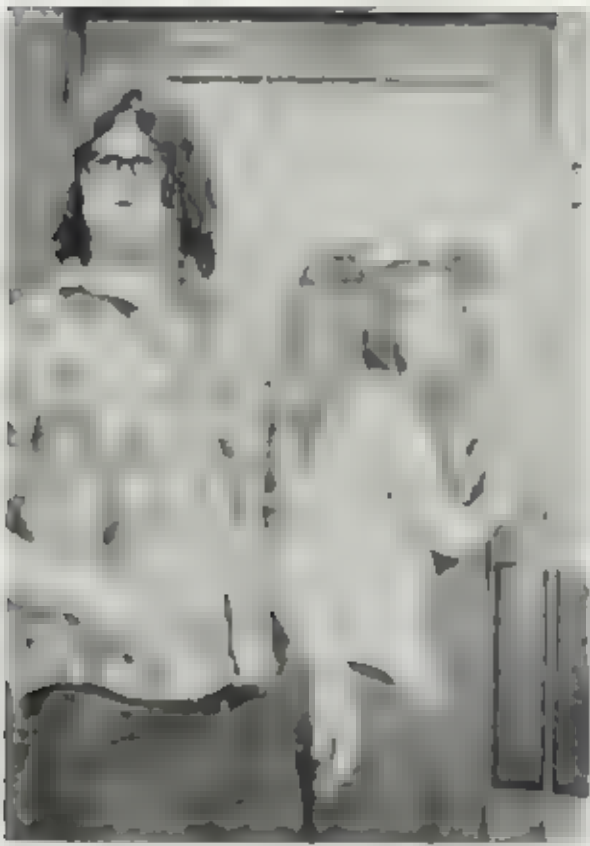

From New Orleans we traveled to Biloxi Mississippi, where kids basked in the warm sun and swam in the gulf. That evening we donned dresses and suits for a delicious seafood feast at a shore-side restaurant

Back to West Memphis—our final Stop. At 3:50 A M. we left Arkansas—Homeward bound! Arriving in Winfield at 4:00 P M.— we departed our own ways—carrying with us cherished memories of our Class Trip

The class of "76" really moved out this year with their many activities and money raising projects

If the statement "A healthy mind is a healthy body" is true, many sophomores have both. In the year 73-74, we have had 13 girls and 15 boys participate in school sports

Ten different sophomores made the honor roll. We had six speech students, seven FFA members, 11 sophomores in choir, five played in Jazz Band and 13 in band

To make money this year the sophomores set $8.00 as class dues, held a bakesale in January and another in April. A car wash was planned for the day of Prom, the 27th of April. T-shirts were sold in the school halls, and a slave auction was held in May

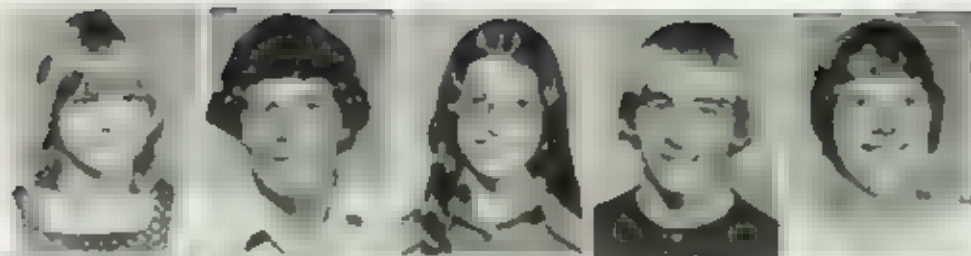

The class officers this year were Janet Hillyard-President, Michelle Honts-Vice President, Kevin Jennings-Secretary, and Connie Harris-Treasurer.

Exchange student shares artistic talent

This year's foreign exchange student, Desiree Angela Susanne Palla, shared her painting and drawing ability with WMU students through her frequent contributions to school art displays and her illustrations for the school newspaper.

In addition to painting and drawing Desiree, better known as Ree (Ray), enjoys dancing, music, reading, needlework and sewing.

Ree, 15, arrived in Winfield July 17, 1973, to make her home with the Bob Lindell family and attend Winfield-Mt. Union Community School as an International Christian Youth Exchangee.

She is the daughter of Karl and Rose Palla of Bietenhausen, Germany. Her brother Sven is 14 and her sister Corrine is 8. Her father is in the insurance business.

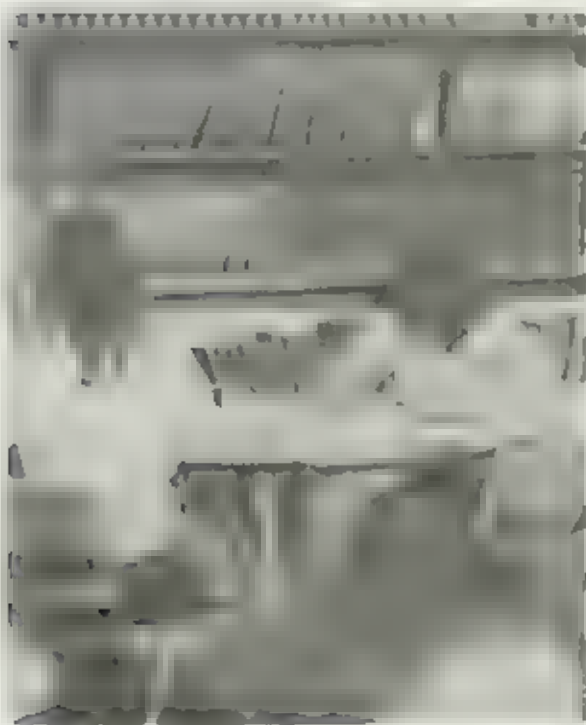

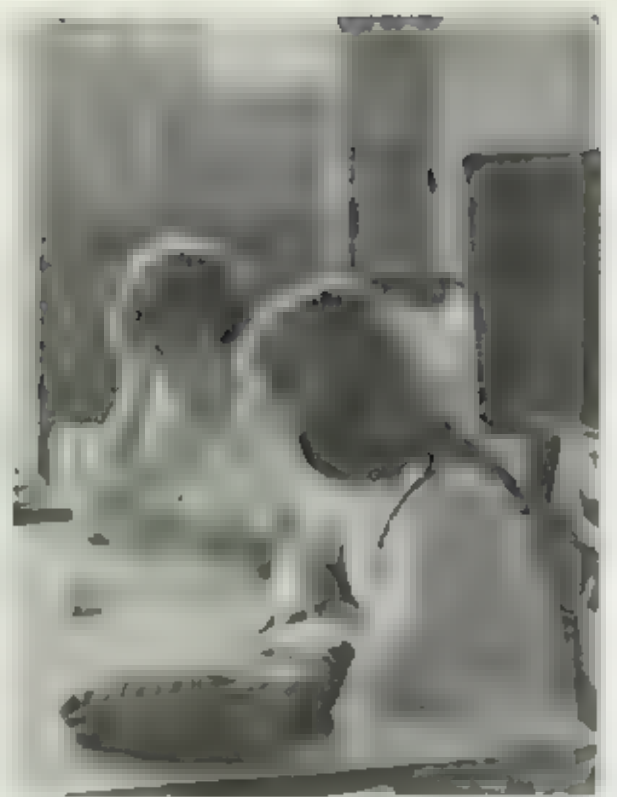

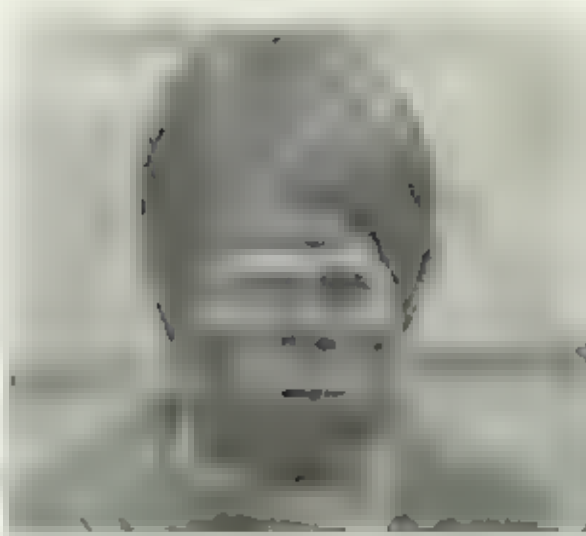

INTERNATIONAL CHRISTIAN YOUTH EXCHANGE

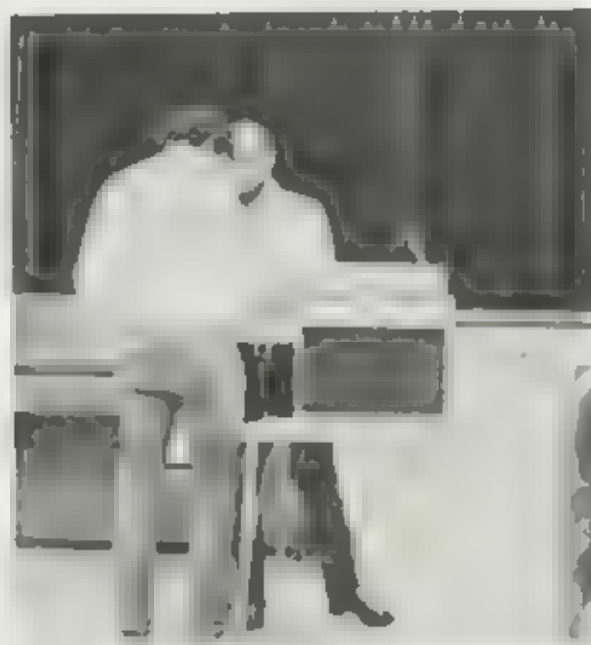

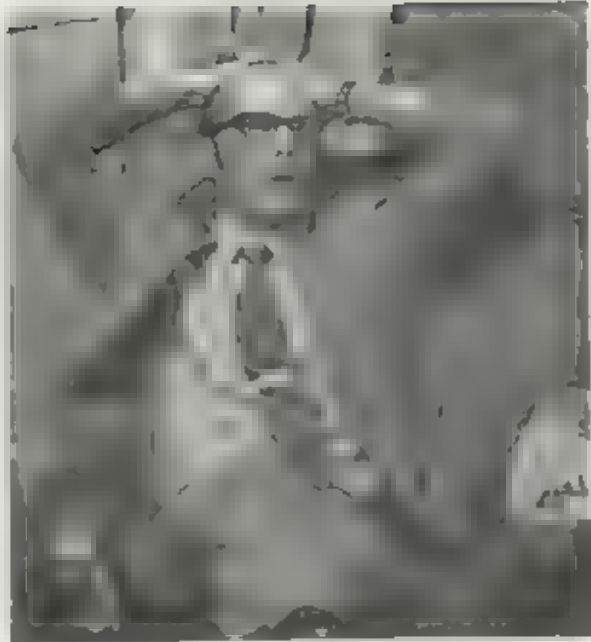

Student bound for Iceland

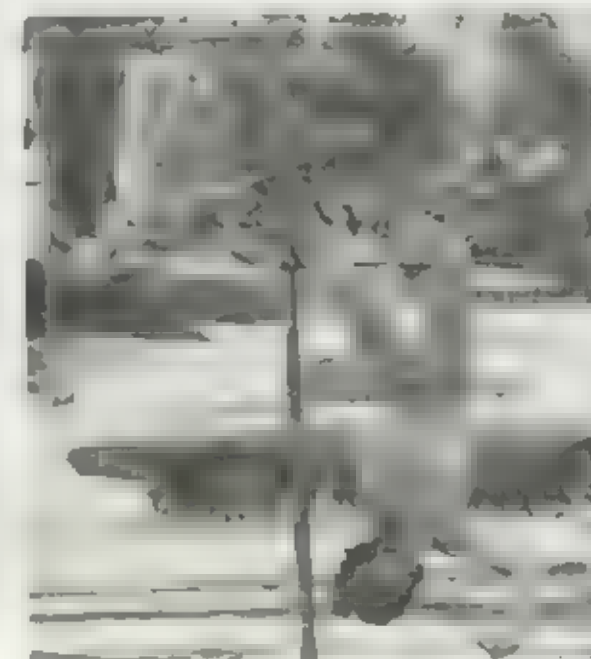

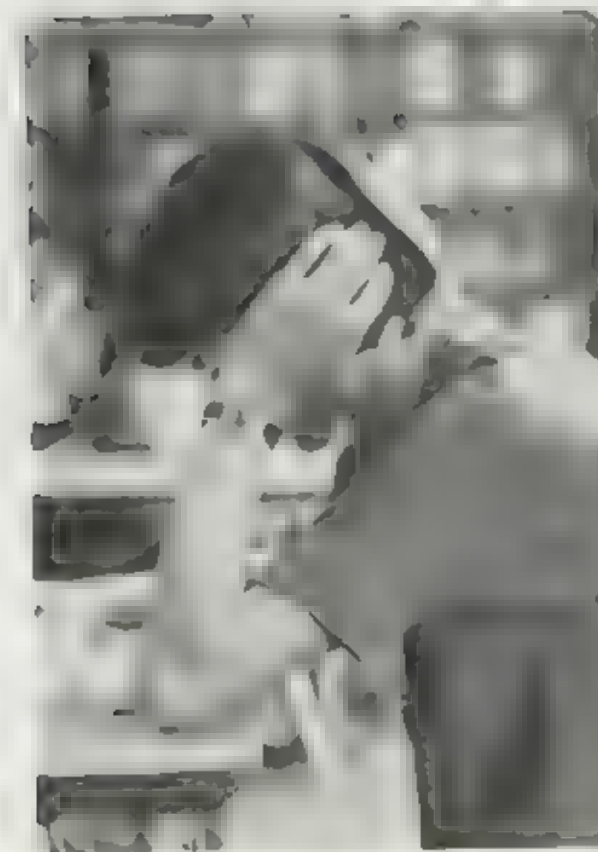

Neil Klopfenstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Klopfenstein, was accepted by ICYE as an exchange student to Iceland for the 1974-75 school year.

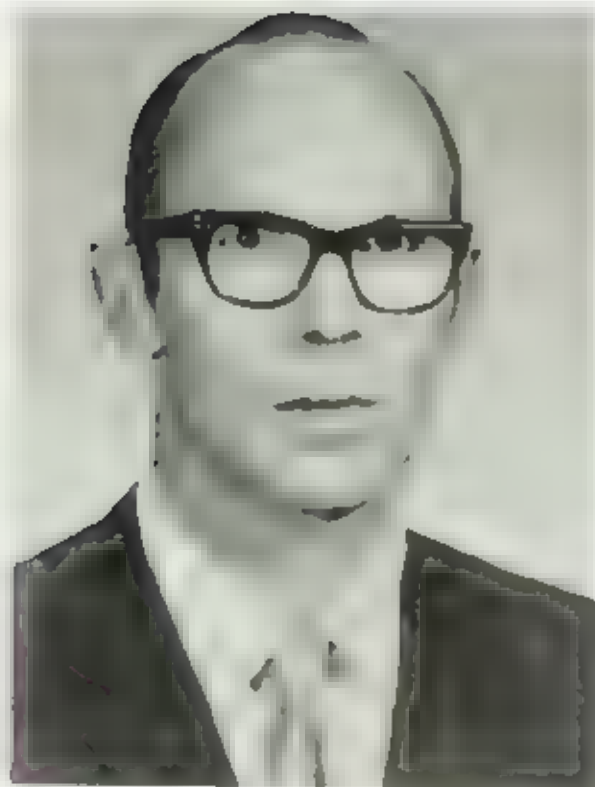

Neil, a '74 graduate of Winfield-Mt. Union, participated in wrestling, football, band, speech and school plays. He was a member of Student Council and National Honor Society and served as vice president of the senior class.

Phil Klopfenstein

We pause to remember . . .

The loss of a respected school board member, Phil Klopfenstein. All his life was spent in the Winfield area where he was a prominent farmer. He served on the school board for nine years, two of them as school board president. He was a 1950 graduate of the State University at Ames, a member of the United Methodist Church, and very active in community organizations and projects.

We who have prepared this annual wish to express our gratitude for the contributions Phil Klopfenstein made to our community and educational system, both of which will be poorer for their loss.

TRACK SQUAD BATTLES FOR RECOGNITION

A small but determined track squad, under the coaching of Dan Bitner, battled its way to recognition. Following a third game loss to Davville, however, the team never recovered. Chris Humphreys was placed on the conference first team as utility man and Paul Klopfenstein gained second team recognition as offensive lineman.

Leading the Wolf pack was senior Mike Thurman who pinned 3 straight opponents in district competition to advance to the state tournament. There he made the best showing in WMU's history by taking second place in the Class A Heavyweight division.

The 1974 baseball team ended the season with a 4-12 record. Lettermen on the squad were seniors Rod Davis, Chris Humphreys and Mike Weber; juniors Mike Fenton, Myron Rees and Terry Rodgers; and sophomore Gary McCreight. WEBER LEADS CONFERENCE SCORING

The Winfield-Mt. Union Wolves ended their season with a 73-61 loss to the WACO Warriors in sectional play. In spite of a disappointing 5-13 record, the team showed considerable over all improvement

The Wolves were led by all-conference first team selection, senior Mike Weber. Mike was the team's leading scorer and the conference leading scorer with a 29.8 average in conference competition. Also winning all-conference recognition was junior Terry Rodgers who was given honorable mention

The guards on the All Conference team this year were Kathy Gibbs, 1st team, Sonya Finke, 2nd team; and Jan Cornick, honorable mention. The forwards were Barb Krieger, 1st team; Sherry Steffens, 2nd team; and Nancy Rickey, honorable mention.

WMU also had 2 All State honorable mentions: forward Barb Kreiger and guard Kathy Gibbs.

WMU girls' track team made up for lack of experience by rating high in the track meet standings, with fourth place at Pekin and New London; fifth at Waco; and ninth at District.

Kathy Gibbs the only senior on the team will be missed, as she ran in several relays.

Barb Krieger again qualified for the State meet in the shot put. The distance medley relay team (Becky Hills, Peg Adams, Lynne Johnston, Sharla Haines) accompanied her to Drake Relays with a third place time of 4:32.4.

The Wolverettes once again journeyed to Fort Dodge for the Summer State Softball Tournament. This was their third appearance. They did exceptionally well, bringing home a fifth place trophy. The W-MU fans were very proud and threw a homecoming for the deserving girls who were presented with a "Key of the City"

Barb Krieger was named to the all-tournament and 2nd All-State team. Donna Wick was also chosen to the 2nd team. Sherry Steffens, Kathy Gibbs, and Sonya Finke received Honorable Mention recognition. The W-MU Wolverettes won the SEI Fall Conference—playing only 1 game the full 7 innings. Being Conference Champs was a thrill, but being one of the top 8 teams in the State was even a greater thrill

After coming from behind to defeat Saydel (7-4), the Wolverettes ventured to Hubbard where they were defeated by South Hamilton (6-1).

Those chosen for the all-Conference team: Kathy Gibbs, Sonya Finke, Barb Krieger, Sherry Steffens, and Nancy Rickey

Even though the Wolves were defeated 18-0 by L&M, Homecoming '73 still proved memorable.

Each day of the week was designated as a special day. Monday was Crazy Hat and Sock Day, Tuesday was Clash Day, Wednesday was Greaser Day, and Thursday Slave Day. The week ended with the traditional Red and White Day.

Each class decorated one side of the hallway. The hallways were judged and the award was given to the Junior Class.

Thursday afternoon began with a parade down mainstreet. Everyone participated in Boom Afternoon which included games and skits followed by a wiener roast.

During halftime of the football game, Jan Cornick was crowned Queen. Her attendants were Leanne McCraight, Sherry Steffens, Becky Budde, and Sonya Finke. Erik Binkle was crowned King during the dance following the game. Other candidates for King were Jim Underwood, Cozy Cozine, Brad Venghaus and Paul Klopfenstein.

The dance was highlighted by the MORNING AFTER. The gym was decorated as a football field.

Much credit should be given to Pep Club President Barb Krieger, Sponsor Mary Stevens, Chairman Deb Harris and the cheerleaders. Their leadership made a very successful Homecoming

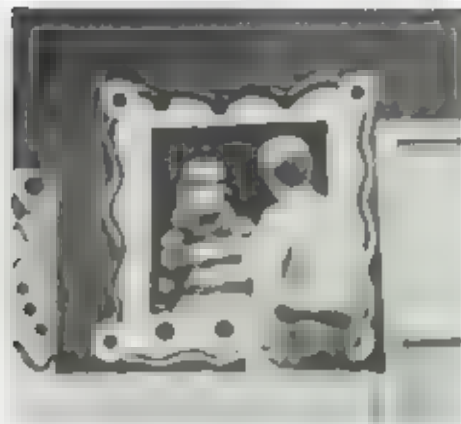

THE JUNIORS OF WMU PRESENT "IT'S ALL DONE WITH MIRRORS"

When the talented young writer Jonny looks into his mirror the morning after a trip to the carnival, right away he suspects there's something wrong—because he isn't seeing his own reflection. In fact, the face looking back from the mirror seems to be that of a strange girl! Actually she shouldn't be unknown to Jonny. Her name is Peggy. She's very pretty, and she adores him—though from afar. Peggy is a lowly secretary in the T.V. agency where Jonny works, but he's always much too involved to notice her.

Peggy, supposed to deliver some typing to Jonny, follows her hero to the carnival and into the Hall of Mirrors, where in the magic of theatrical comedy, their reflections somehow get switched! Now everytime Jonny looks in his mirror, he sees Peggy—and he still doesn't recognize her. She has some frank and funny comments to make to him. Happily for the much-in-love girl she sees Jonny in her mirror, and in spite of his frank comments—this suits her perfectly. However, it's more than upsetting to Jonny, who is engaged to a possessive girl named Denise.
